

Occupancy declaration for a property by the owner (change of circumstances)

This form is reserved for users who do not have access to the Internet. You must send it completed to your tax office. In principle, the declaration is filed online using the "Mes biens immobiliers" (My properties) service available on the impots.gouv.fr website.

With this declaration, tax authorities can determine whether a property should be exempt from residence tax on main residences, or liable for residence tax on second homes or for taxes for vacant residential premises. The occupancy declaration¹ for residential property and professional premises liable for residence tax is required for each owner in the event of a change in the occupancy status of their properties (e.g. sale, change of tenant).
